Art Show for March–

Golden Gate Weavers Guild

Established in 1918, The Golden Gate Weavers Guild is the oldest weaving guild in California. They meet nine times a year at the North Berkeley Senior Center, where they often have a guest speaker give a talk on textile related topics.

For the last 10 years, the Golden Gate Weavers Guild has established an outreach program for school children. After demonstrating spinning and weaving techniques, guild members allow children a hands-on opportunity to weave.

They have exhibited their weaving every year since 2011. Exhibit Venues include Marvin Gardens in Kensington, the East Bay Municipal Water District Headquarters in Oakland and the Tilden Nature Center. In 2014 they celebrated their 75th anniversary with a show at the Conference of Northern California Handweavers at the Marriott Convention Center in Oakland.

They are delighted to have an exhibit at the Faculty Club at UC Berkeley.
